FISCAL YEAR 2022

JULY 1, 2021 - JUNE 30, 2022

Improving health by providing basic needs
across the lifespan

thediaperbank
of Connecticut

CHANGE FROM THE BOTTOM UP

OUR MISSION

To ensure that families have an adequate supply of diapers, period supplies, and incontinence products;

To raise community awareness that “basic human needs” include diapers, period supplies, and incontinence products and that these needs are not being met for individuals and families living in poverty;

To advocate for policy reform so that diapers, period supplies and incontinence products are included in the definition of and provision for the “basic human needs” of families.

LOOKING AHEAD

Our goals for the 2023 Fiscal Year and beyond include:

- ★ Expanding our programs focusing on period and incontinence supplies
- ★ Advocating for lifelong personal hygiene needs to be considered essential health items
- ★ Coordinating a continued response to current and emergent needs
- ★ Implementing innovative and mission-driven ways to generate revenue

The Diaper Bank of Connecticut

A LETTER FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends,

What a year! We've expanded our horizons to reach more and more families here in Connecticut, and I would like to begin with a thank you! Every year, we're grateful to have the opportunity to reflect and share the impact you've had on the work we do, and how that influences the lives of our families, neighbors, and communities across our state.

Your continued support helped us surpass our distribution records and I am so proud of what The Diaper Bank of Connecticut has accomplished. We distributed more infant and toddler diapers than ever before, and have continued to expand our programs: Rise, Beam, and Shine. We know basic health needs are critical throughout the lifespan and we're dedicated to building the framework to reach more individuals and families.

Among our successes, you've helped amplify our advocacy, resulting in increased state funding for The Diaper Bank and passing House Bill 5272, for free period products to be funded and provided in schools and universities.

While we were able to increase our capacity to meet the needs of families and individuals across their lifespan, we recognize we're just scratching the surface, especially with the pandemic still affecting us in unexpected ways. I am so proud of all we've done but know there is so much more to do. The need in our community is still at an all-time high and we know that too many among us worry about how they will afford diapers, incontinence supplies, and period products. These are basic health needs that no one should have to go without, and our fight to bring equal access to everyone continues.

Janet Holgi-Alfano

Thank you for your support!

KEY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- ★ Advocated for menstrual equity in Connecticut to increase access to period supplies in schools, colleges, shelters and prisons.
- ★ Obtained emergency federal ARPA funding in partnership with the State Office of Early Childhood (OEC) to provide diapers and basic essentials to all families taking part in OEC funded home visiting programs.
- ★ Acquired emergency federal funding by establishing partnership with the state Department of Housing to distribute diapers and other basic health needs in partnership with the Connecticut Hospital Association.
- ★ Implemented an emergency distribution to over 1,180 families in response to the formula shortage.

OUR PROGRAMS IN ACTION

Incontinence is a common problem among older adults, but many don't seek help for it, partly out of embarrassment. For low-income adults, cost can be a major barrier to accessing incontinence supplies, and going without them can bring physical and emotional consequences.

No one should have to worry about affording tampons or pads, but too many do. Those who can't buy an adequate supply sometimes resort to using toilet paper, rags or incontinence products. Often, lacking period products causes individuals to miss out on work, school or social commitments.

Incontinence products for youths can be costly for families. Coverage for such products is limited in Connecticut, and items can cost families more than $200 a month out of pocket. Some parents raising children with this type of medical need have to reduce their work hours, or stop working altogether, to care for them.

We are proud to be the Connecticut chapter for

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

Thank you to all our volunteers!

We've been honored to have such an influx of volunteers over the past year, as we were finally able to open our doors again as the pandemic has slowed to many enthusiastic faces. It was heartwarming and energizing to have folks filling our warehouse again, repackaging diapers, sorting and counting products, and even volunteering their expertise to our logistics!

Volunteering is an amazing way to build community engagement and create valuable partnerships.

Our volunteers are a fundamental part of our operation and help us operate at our best in order to reach the families we serve as quickly and efficiently as possible.

This past year, we've had corporations such as Amazon, Liberty Bank, and UPS to name a few, as well as local universities like Yale, University of New Haven, and Quinnipiac join us.

Volunteering is an amazing way to build community engagement and create valuable partnerships. We're looking to increase our volunteer capacity and would love to have you and your company, university, or organization join us in our volunteer space!

Would you like to volunteer? Contact our Community Outreach Coordinator, Jenny, or fill out the form on our website: thediaperbank.org/volunteer-form

PERIOD ADVOCACY HIGHLIGHTS

In 2022, the team at the Diaper Bank of CT worked to address period poverty in our state. The result was the passage of H.B 5272: An Act Concerning Menstrual Products, which increases access to menstrual products in public schools, state universities, community colleges, prisons, and shelters.

Here's a look at what we did to get there:

- ★ Passing H.B. 5272: An Act Concerning Menstrual Products
- ★ Participated in the Menstrual Equity Coalition
- ★ Hosted two legislative priority meetings
- ★ Legislative Breakfast
- ★ Legislative Happy Hour
- ★ Hosting the Menstrual Equity Lobby Day
- ★ Testified before the Public Health Committee in support of the bill
- ★ Hosted Period Prom to celebrate the bill's passage
